Teachings of Sri Guru Granth Sahib ji equate education to the principle of welfare of one and all. Education plays fundamental role in determining the future of any community. Benjamin Franklin considers that the investment in education is the most fruitful one, the thought also upheld by Nelson Mandela. He opines that education is the strongest weapon for progress and reformation in the society.

Recognizing the vitality of Education, Shiromani Gurudwara Prabandhak Committee, Sri Amritsar took responsibility of disseminating education among the masses, in the spirit of message enshrined in Sri Guru Granth Sahib. At present, apart from Medical, Engineering and various professional Colleges, SGP is running forty five Degree colleges and seventy five Schools in Punjab and other states of India. The prime motive of these endeavours is to offer opportunities to the youth of rural background and under privileged sections of the society.

A historic step taken in this direction is the setting up of Sri Guru Granth Sahib World University while commemorating the historic event of fourth centenary celebrations of the compilation and first installation of Adi (Guru) Granth Sahib in the year 2004.
