GUIDELINES FOR THE PREPARATION OF THESIS

1. GENERAL

In general, the Thesis shall report, in an organized and scholarly fashion, an account of original research work of the research scholar, leading to the discovery of new facts or techniques or correlation of facts already known (analytical, experimental, etc.). Thesis shall indicate the research scholar's ability to undertake sustained research and present the findings in an appropriate manner.

2. ARRANGEMENT OF THE CONTENTS OF THE THESIS

The Thesis material should be arranged and bound in the sequence given below:

- a) Cover Page and Title page (as shown in Sample II)
- b) Certificate (as shown in Sample III)
- c) Acknowledgements
- d) Table of Contents (as shown in Sample IV)
- e) List of Tables
- f) List of Figures
- g) Acronyms used (as shown in Sample V)
- h) Chapters
- i) Appendices and/or Annexure
- j) References

The Tables and Figures should be included subsequently after referring them in the text of the Thesis. The thesis may be printed on both sides of paper.

3. FONT

The Thesis must be typewritten on A4 size paper (21 cm x 29.7 cm) in a clear and legible font (Times New Roman 12 or Calibri 12). As far as possible, the same font should be used for the entire thesis but if necessary, different fonts may be used for Tables, Figures, and Appendices. The spacing in the text of the Thesis should be 1.5 throughout. Single spacing should be used in long Tables, block quotations separated from the text, footnotes, and bibliographical entries.

Larger size type may be used for the title of the Thesis and for Chapter headings, as long as it is not larger than 18 point. Boldface type may also be used on the title page and for headings, as well as in the text for special symbols or for emphasis. Reduced type may be used within Tables, Figures, and Appendices, but it should be at least 10 point in size and must be completely legible. The font size of footnotes and bibliographic entries should be 9 point.

The Thesis should be free from grammatical, lexical and punctuation errors. In addition to the computer spellchecker, a thesis should be proof-read to avoid errors bypassed by the spellchecker. When using numbers in the text, if the first word of a sentence is a number, it should be written in words.

4. CHAPTER AND PAGE LAYOUT

Each Chapter should start on a new page. Do the same with each element of the front matter (list of Tables, Acknowledgments, etc.), the Reference section, and each Appendix. Avoid typing a heading near the bottom of a page unless there is room for at least two lines of text following the heading. Pages should be numbered at the bottom in the centre, using Arabic numerals (1, 2, 3) beginning with 1 on the first page of the Introduction and continuing consecutively to the end of the manuscript including References. The preliminary pages are numbered in lower-case Roman numerals, beginning with the declaration page.

5. MARGINS

6. CAPTIONS AND NUMBERING (TABLES AND FIGURES)

Each Table should carry a number and a title clearly describing the data presented. Similarly each Figure / Illustration should carry a number and caption that clearly describes the nature of data presented. The caption should be at the bottom of the Figure. The figures should be numbered consecutively throughout a chapter, in the order in which they are placed in the text. The Figures, Graphs, Tables should be embedded in the text of the thesis, immediately after the first mention of it in the text, on the same page if there is room, or on the following page.

Captions and titles of Figures and Tables should appear on the same page as the material itself. Tables should be numbered consecutively with Arabic numerals throughout a chapter. Figures and Illustrations should also be numbered consecutively in the order of presentation. All Tables and Figures must be referred to in the text by numbers and not by a phrase such as "the following table".

7. APPROPRIATE USE OF HEADINGS AND SUB-HEADINGS

Headings should be distinguished from the surrounding text by a larger font size, a different font/bold/italics/underlined/or a combination of these. All headings of the same level should follow the same style, and headings at lower levels should be less prominent than those at higher levels.

All headings should be left aligned, except chapter headings, which may be centered. The headings and subheadings can be numbered, if necessary.

UNIVERSITY POLICY ON PLAGIARISM

The University is committed to maintain ethics and honesty, the two most important components of academic activities in teaching or research. Many times, it is observed that some of the researchers/academicians knowingly or unknowingly publish or present other's work as their own. Such acts affect healthy academic atmosphere in the academic institution, which also harms the reputation of the academic institution as well as the individual. Thus, the University has framed a policy on plagiarism to avoid such type of academic misconduct.

a) Plagiarism

Plagiarism consists of any one or all of the following:

- i) Turning in someone else's work as one's own;
- ii) Copying words or ideas from someone else, without giving credit to the original work;
- iii) Failing to put a quotation in quotation marks;
- iv) Giving incorrect information about the source or a quotation;
- v) Changing words but copying the sentence structure of a source without giving credit to the original work.
- vi) Manipulation or misinterpretation of others' work (published or un-published) as one's own by modifying numerical values in figures, tables and illustrations.

b) Scope

The synopsis, pre-submission paper and the thesis for Ph.D. will be checked for plagiarism. In addition, the dissertation/thesis/project reports submitted by students of Masters programmes (M.Tech./M.Sc.) will also be checked for plagiarism.

c) Procedure for Plagiarism Check

The University provides plagiarism check software(s) to detect the similar textual content already published in various information sources.

While submitting the soft copy of the synopsis/pre-submission paper/Ph.D. thesis/Master's programme dissertation, for scanning with plagiarism detection software, the research scholar and supervisor are solicited to consider the following guidelines:

- i) The CD (or such device) containing the soft copy of the synopsis/pre-submission paper/Ph.D. thesis/Master's programme dissertation has to be in PDF or Word file (or as directed from time to time).
- ii) Thesis covering all the chapters shall be in a single file, excluding preliminary pages such as declaration, acknowledgement, abstract, list of charts and abbreviations, tables of contents, etc., and also succeeding pages such as bibliography, glossary, index, questionnaire, etc.

- iii) In case, the percentage of similar content detected is beyond the permitted limit of any plagiarized content, the concerned researcher will have to take appropriate measures under the supervision of his/her guide(s) so as to ensure originality of research output.
- iv) The researcher is to acknowledge accurately the right authors and sources providing the text within quotes. Uniformity and consistency be maintained in rendering bibliographic references. An accepted standard format has to be followed for rendering references.

d) Permitted Level of Plagiarism

Own published work (appended at the end of the thesis/dissertation) and references with proper citation are excluded from plagiarism check.

The maximum acceptance level of textual similarity shall be:

Faculty	Permitted level of Textual Similarity
Faculty of Basic & Applied Sciences Faculty of Engineering & Technology Faculty of Medical Sciences	20%
Faculty of Commerce & Management Faculty of Languages Faculty of Sri Guru Granth Sahib Studies Faculty of Education and Information Sciences Faculty of Law Faculty of Social Sciences Faculty of Performing Arts	30%

e) Compliance Statements

The candidate will submit the signed report generated on the plagiarism checking software, of the draft thesis along with a soft copy of the draft thesis for consideration of RAC. The supervisor and the co-supervisor, if any, must sign the report indicating that the student has indeed run his work through plagiarism checking software.

f) Software Settings

While performing plagiarism check on the software, the following optional settings may invariably be made to reduce the percentage of textual similarity:

- i) Exclude mathematical, statistical and scientific formulae
- ii) Exclude one's own published work
- iii) Exclude Quotations, methodology, legal quotes, bibliography, phrases etc.
- iv) Exclude the title of the paper, name of the institute, department, author name etc.
- v) Exclude small similarity (less than 1%)
